Who we are

The V&A is a family of museums dedicated to the power of creativity. Our mission is to champion design and creativity in all its forms, advance cultural knowledge, and inspire makers, creators and innovators everywhere. We share a 5,000-year-old story of creativity through exhibitions, events, educational programmes, digital experiences, conservation, research, and an ever-evolving national collection of over 2.8m objects spanning every creative discipline.

The Product Management team sits within the Technology department. The team is focused on delivering a Continuous Improvement programme for our key Technology products, ensuring that they remain fit for purpose in supporting the V&A organisational objectives. This role will be working closely with the Product Managers, Delivery Manager and internal stakeholders to deliver key initiatives as part of the ongoing Commercial programme of work

About the role

The Product Business Analyst will support Product managers and other Technology colleagues in an environment of fast-paced, continuous Technology improvements. The Product Business Analyst works closely with Product Managers, stakeholders, QA teams and 3rd party suppliers to understand business needs, translate them into user stories, and ensure solutions deliver maximum value to customers and the organization.

1. Collaborate with Product Managers, Delivery Manager, and internal business stakeholders and Subject Matter Experts to gather, analyse, and refine business requirements

2. Translate business needs into user stories, epics, and acceptance criteria for the Product Management team

3. Participate in Product team processes, including sprint planning, daily stand-ups, sprint reviews, and retrospectives to ensure solutions meet business needs

4. Analyse, document and maintain business processes, workflows, and system interactions for all existing and new initiatives

5. Work with the Product Test Analyst to validate delivered functionality against acceptance criteria and business expectations

6. Ensure alignment between business objectives and delivered product capabilities

7. Use data and feedback to recommend improvements to product features and business processes

8. Support the delivery team by answering requirement-related questions during sprints

What we’re looking for

Business Analysis: Proven experience as a Business Analyst in an Agile environment, specifically including Ecommerce and online customer journeys

Agile Frameworks: Strong knowledge of Agile Artefacts such as Epics & Features alongside Agile Frameworks such as Scrum and Kanban to support rapid product development delivery methods

Analysis and Requirements: Experienced analyst who can utilise different requirement gathering techniques to translate and prioritise business requirements into well-articulated user stories with acceptance criteria.

Adaptability and Problem-Solving: Comfortable shifting between detailed plans and iterative adjustments, solving problems in real time.

Multi-Product Process optimisation: experience working across multiple systems to analyse end-to-end requirements, identify gaps, and proactively uncover optimisation opportunities.

Collaborative Working: Significant skills in team collaboration and coaching, and adept at managing team dynamics to forge an environment where a team is empowered to deliver.

Clear Communication and Transparency: Maintains clear and open communication with all team members and stakeholders, keeping them informed of progress and challenges.

Tool Proficiency: Skilled in using project management tools (eg Microsoft Azure Devops, Jira) to track business needs through to development solutions

Why work here

We strive to integrate equality, diversity, and inclusion consistently and naturally into all our activities.

We are proud to be an open, tolerant, and diverse organisation. We want to do more to welcome a broader audience and develop a more diverse workforce.

We work closely with our staff networks to develop our employee experience.

The V&A values are Equity, Sustainability, Generosity, Collaboration and Creativity.

We are committed to a strict zero tolerance policy on any discrimination, harassment or bullying.
